Lt. General Walter B. Smith
Director of Central Intelligence Agency
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear General Smith:

25X1A
25X1A

In January of this year we had the pleasure of having the organization and functions of the Central Intelligence Agency explained to the students in our Intelligence Staff Officer Course by Mr. [redacted] We would appreciate very much having Mr. [redacted] talk on this same subject to our new class of intelligence officers on 8 May 1961.

25X1A
25X1A

Colonel Strand, Chief of our intelligence instruction of the Air Command and Staff School, discussed this date with Mr. [redacted] while in Washington last week and found it satisfactory. If this arrangement meets with your approval we will be pleased to have the details worked out between Colonel Strand and Mr. [redacted]

25X1A

This presentation is a distinct asset to our curriculum and we are very desirous of giving our new students the benefit of Mr. [redacted] presentation.

JOHN A. SAMFORD
Major General, USAF
